COMPLETE LIST OF CANDIDATES IN COMING MUNICIPAL ELECTION

CONTESTS FOR COUNCILMEN AND MAYOR TO BE EXCITING

TIME FOR FILING NOMINATION
PAPERS EXPIRED SATURDAY NIGHT AND THE LIST IS NOW COMPLETE.

For mayor—Henry T. Titus, M. H.
Eber.
For city clerk—A. McF. Porter.
For city treasurer—F. N. Conrad.
For assessor—Harry Hartshorn, D.
F. Randolph.

For collector—J. W. Booth.
For councilmen—H. E. Burdick, S.
W. O'Brien, Henry Schmidt, R. L.
Smith, Simon J. Szymanski, Henry Van
Dorn, James R. G. A. Klock, B. N.
Dorson, Silas Hills.

For school trustees—No papers
have been filed.

The above list of names shows those which will appear on the official ballot and the offices for which they are candidates in the municipal election, which will be held in this city on week of next Wednesday. No other names can be printed on the official ballot, as the limit of time for filing nomination papers, according to the amended city charter, expired Saturday night, ten days before the date set for the city election.

The real interest in the coming city election centers in the race for mayor and members of the city council, there being no contest for any of the other city offices, except for assessor. That the vote on mayor will be close is assured by the close race made by the two opposing candidates in this year in the election last year.

Although it was rumored in some circles that Col. C. M. Bingham would be a candidate for the office of mayor in the coming election, it is now definitely known that Col.
Bingham will not be in the race.
Strong pressure was brought to bear on Col. Bingham by his friends among the business men of the city to permit his name to go before the people as a candidate for mayor, and Mr. Bingham is reported to have finally consented to stand for the office with the understanding that both Mr. Titus and Mr. Zuber would withdraw their nomination papers and step out of the race. It is understood that Mayor Titus expressed his willingness to withdraw from the race in favor of Mr. Bingham as a candidate, but "Squire Zuber was in the race to stick and Mr. Bingham refused to permit nomination papers to be circulated in his behalf.

Four members of the Daytona city council will retire from office this year, President Henry Schmidt, H. E.
Burdick, S. W. O'Brien and E. S.
Hall. All but Mr. Hall are candidates to succeed themselves as aldermen, and, with seven other candidates in the race for the four seats in the council chamber, the fight for election promises to be interesting and exciting.

A. McF. Porter, as city clerk, F.
N. Conrad as treasurer and J. W.
Booth as city collector have given every satisfaction in their administration and each will be elected without opposition this year. The close margin by which Harry Hartshorn was elected city assessor last year, and the fact that he has the same opponent in the race this year, assures a lively fight for election.

No nomination papers for the positions of city school trustees have been filed and it will be necessary for the voters to write on the ballot the names of the three men for whom they wish to vote for those positions. There is at present one vacancy on the board, caused by the resignation of Trustee A. J. Wilder, and W. M. Hankins and William Jackson are the two retiring members of the school board. Present indications are that Messrs.

Hankins and Jackson will be re-elected, and there is current talk of Rev. S. D. Gammell as a capable man to succeed to the vacancy on the board.

STRIKING FOREIGNERS GOING BACK

elry, and a razor.

One night during the past week
thieves broke into the depot at De-Land and got away with $10 in cash,
all the money in the cash drawer,

pot the thieves first tried to pry open a window, but failed in this and then broke open a window.

ACCIDENT ON DELAND ROAD AUTOMOBILE IS SMASHED UP

PARTY OF FOUR FROM DELAND
MEETS WITH SERIOUS MISHAP
JUST THIS SIDE OF MT.
ARARAT.

What might have resulted in a fatal accident, but fortunately resulted in nothing more serious than a badly demolished automobile, happened on the Deland road Sunday evening, when a White gasoline car went into the ditch beside the road and nearly turned turtle.

The four men in the car had been to New Smyrna and were on the way back to their home in Deland when the accident happened just this side of Mt. Ararat, about one and a half miles west of the city limits. It is a miracle that none of the occupants of the car was injured, but all were able to walk to this city after the accident. Unable to right the car or estimate the damage done in the darkness all of the men walked to Daytona and were later taken to Deland by J. T. Dilsen. They gave their names as Charles Miller, Mr.
Powell, George Berry and Mr. De-roy, all of Deland, and the damaged car it is said belonged to the Gordon garage.

THE DESPLAND.
The regular Saturday evening dance at the Despland was the most largely attended of any social function to date at the hotel, only a proof that the town is fast filling up. The guests of the house and a few outsiders spent a most enjoyable evening. The concert last evening given by the Despland hotel orchestra was greatly enjoyed and came as a rare treat after a rather gloomy afternoon as far as the weather was concerned.

It was announced to the guests of Schmidt's hotel at supper Thursday evening that during the evening there would be an impromptu entertainment in the hotel parlors. When the guests had assembled they were entertained by one of the guests of the house, A. Brown of Brooklyn, who, with his wife, is a guest of the house. Mr. Brown recited an original poem in German, the lines in the poem containing some ecology on each guest of the house, which was quite pleasing and entertaining.
At the close of the recitation Judge Dolan of Chicago thanked Mr. Brown and on behalf of the guests presented the entertainer of the evening with a go-cart made for two, containing several small articles. Following the joke several speeches were made and one of the German guests present, and it is needless to say that Schmidt's hotel is the headquarters in Daytona for German people, just happened to make the remark that it is too bad that a tourist town like Daytona is dumpeered by being dry.

As a sequel to Thursday's entertainment Host Schmidt arranged a second entertainment for Saturday evening and this was followed by a sumptuous repast, made up largely of German water as a beverage, that those so fortunate as to be present will not forget in many a day. Host Schmidt acted as toast master of the evening, and Mr. Totle of Chicago served as master of ceremonies. Each guest responded with some remarks, political or otherwise. When Mr. Brown's turn came he was prepared, and again held the attention of the listeners with a second original poetic composition in German, this time each guest receiving a gentle knock, which came as a severe sock after the nice things he had said on Thursday evening. Every one had a good time, but George Cunningham, the head clerk, can't quite see the point, not being able to speak German, and all the guests refusing to tell him the contents of the two poems or what meaning was made of him.

Exactly Suitable to His Needs.
Mr. Payson and Mr. Deadbeat met on the street.
"I see you're moved again, Deadbeat," was Payson's greeting. "Where are you living now?"
"Over on the next street," rejoined Deadbeat easily. "I made the change because my new place has a high board fence in front with a sign on that exactly suits me as a warning to all my creditors not to mail me any more bills."
"What does the sign say?"
"Post No Bills,"—Judge.

The Earth's Shell.
The sun and the earth are both practically spherical in shape, and the earth is evidently only a small cooled off or frozen sun. The sun has a shell of glowing metallic clouds, the earth has a shell of solid opaque rocks and metals.

Curious Way of Catching Fish.
Indians of Colima have a peculiar method of going fishing. A writer in the Geographical Journal says: "They use the milk of the 'mamita' or 'moll' tree, the scientific name of which is, I think, Hura crepitans, of the euphorbia genus, for catching fish. I went with some of the Indians to a lagoon in the forest. Here, flinging on the surface of the water, perfectly alive and yet absolutely unable to get away, were fish of all kinds, big and small, from which they scooped the most palatable for food. The milk merely poured into the water, and as it spreads every fish which comes in contact with it becomes paralyzed and yet is not affected as food. Moreover the effect appears to last for several days without killing the fish. The milk is also used as a cure for toothache, as a candle and for the purpose of an ointment, for which a two-pennyful is employed. As a poison they say the results are painful."

Rulers of England.
The first ruler over all England was Egbert, King of Wessex, who united all the various petty kingdoms and became King of England in 827. The greater kingdom was disrupted from 855 to 866, when the Danes ruled north of the Thames. In the latter year King Edgar reunited the kingdom, and since that time it has never been partitioned. Between Edward the Confessor (1042) and Edward the Conqueror (1482) three Danish kings ruled all England—Canute, Harold I. and Hardeknute. The first king of Great Britain was James I. (1603). The first king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was George III. From the conquest of Ireland in 1172 by Henry II. the kings of England were styled Lord of Ireland until the assumption of the title king of Ireland by Henry VIII. and thereafter this title was used until the act of union in 1801. The imperial sovereignty of India was assumed by Queen Victoria.

Like a Scene From the Middle Ages.
The oldest and largest university in the world is El-Azhar at Cairo. Founded in 975, it has been from the start a national institution, the khedive being the rector. The minimum age of entrance is fifteen, and the applicant must know half the Koran by heart, if blind the whole Koran, and be able to read and write. The curriculum consists of virtually nothing but theology and canon law, the final examination fifteen years after matriculation being upon these, together with traditions of the prophet, Grammar, etymology, rhetoric and logic. It is the same instruction which has prevailed for centuries, and one who goes into the great court where the circles of students are sitting at the feet of their Gamaleias looks upon a scene preserved from the middle ages, a perfect specimen, living, breathing and entire. —Argonaut.

Fasting For Health.
Thousands of years before it was practiced as a religious rite fasting was practiced as a health measure in Egypt, India and China. Contemporary to Cleveo was Aesclepiades, a Greek physician, who strongly advocated this idea, and 1,000 years after his day Ito Sina, philosopher and medical sage, argued the virtues of temporary abstinence on the ground that it came easier than constant medication.

LONDON STREET CRIES.

They Must Have Made the City a Bedlam in Olden Days.

London must have been a lively city in the days when the street crier joined in competition with the bell of the postman and the muffled drum of the boy who goes round the streets with the early morning cry of "Hot rolls!" still lingers in the outer suburbs, but the old street crier has long been silent in the land.

Some of the ancient cries have been collected by Frederick W. Hackwood in his book, "The Good Old Times." They include "Cherry Ripe, O!" "Baking or Baking Apples;" "Green Hastings" (these were early peas); "Lavender, sweet lavender, six bunches a penny;" or perhaps "Rabbits, wild rabbits;" and when there was a good catch of fish it might be "Mackerel, O!" or "Herrings, alive, all alive!"

"Some of the cries," writes Mr. Hackwood, "would sound strange to the ear now, as 'Bandboxes,' 'Baskets,' 'Buy a broom,' 'Hair brooms,' 'Hot spiced gingerbread,' 'Brick dust,' 'Sand, O!' 'Belongs to mend,' 'Chairs to mend,' 'Bill of the play.' More familiar perhaps were 'Old clothes,' 'Cats and dogs' meat' and 'Dust O!'"

"Now we are reduced to little more than the shriek and howl which are supposed to represent milk and coal."—London Chronicle.

Deceived by a Cloud.

The instinct of animals is sometimes supposed to be more infallible than human reason, but a scientist's observations of the katydid rather contradict that opinion. The katydid, with its musical membranes, produces two distinct "songs," one peculiar to the night and familiar to everybody, the other a daytime tune, which is rather a rasp than a melody. According to the scientist mentioned, it is sometimes quite comical to hear the singers suddenly change their tune when a dark cloud obscures the sun, immediately resuming their daytime song when it has passed. This recalls the hens that go to roost during a solar eclipse.

The Chatham Chest.

Carefully preserved at Greenwich (England) hospital is the famous Chatham chest. It is a great box curiously wrought, its iron body being crossed and reinforced by strengthening bands of steel. It was the nearest approach the artificers of Elizabeth's age ever made to the modern iron safe and was worked with special care, since it was the repository of the funds of the great naval charity. In 1683 it was felt that something should be done for England's disabled sailors who had so nobly upheld her prestige on the sea against practically the whole world. So the Chatham chest was instituted.

Strictly Business.

"To whom do you wish to make your benefit certificate payable?" asked the officer of the fraternal order.

"To my sweetheart," said the candidate for initiation.

"According to the laws of our order you'll have to marry her first."

"Say, hold up this initiation about fifteen minutes and I'll go and attend to that."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Real Angel of Death.

Most of us are familiar with the beautiful and artistic conception of French wherein a young sculptor who is plying his magic chisel upon a block of stone and summoning from the snowy depths of the marble the dream face of his soul's ideal is gently touched by the wistful eyed angel of death and the skillful arm forever stayed.

The whole creation is marvelously beautiful, and the world is better for its birth. Nevertheless it is allegorical and misleading. The real angel of death in the case of the thin faced sculptor was not a sad visaged maiden of classical profile. In all probability it was a minute, rodlike organism floating amid motes of dust and known to scientists as the "bacillus tuberculosis." The writer does not want to be a shatterer of ideals, but the sooner such poetic notions of death are done away with and the mass of the people educated in a common sense way to the dangers of dust and bacteria the better it will be for humanity in general.—J. G. Ogden in Popular Mechanics.

A Wonderful Machine.

The machine by which railway tickets are printed gives an exhibition of intelligence or what looks very like it. Railway tickets are not, as might be supposed, printed in large sheets and afterward cut up. The cardboard is cut into tickets first and printed one by one afterward. The little blank cards are put in a pile in a kind of perpendicular spout, and the machine slips a bit of metal underneath the bottom of the spout and pushes out the lowest ticket in the pile to be printed and consecutively numbered. It is of no use trying to print a bad ticket. The machine finds out an imperfect blank in an instant and flatly refuses to have anything to do with it. Tear off the corner of one of the bits of card and put it into the spout with the others in order to see what will happen and it refuses to budge again until somebody comes and removes the impostor. Pull out the damaged ticket and the mechanism will set briskly to work again.—Philadelphia Record.

Foiled!

"The last time I was in New York I entertained at dinner at a swell cafe a country cousin. When we got outside he said to me: 'Do you know you accidentally dropped 80 cents on the table just as you left? That thief of a waiter tried to grab it, but I beat him to it.'"

—Atchison Globe.

Murat's Daring to Battle.

I have read that my grandfather's three distinguishing characteristics were high chivalric courage, great skill as a general and almost unparalleled coolness in the hour of danger. His form was tall, his tread like that of a king, his face strikingly noble, while his piercing glance few men could bear. He had heavy black whiskers and long black locks, which contrasted singularly with his fiery blue eyes. He usually wore a three cornered hat with a magnificent white plume of ostrich feathers. This plume, with many other relics, is now in the possession of my eldest brother, Prince Murat. My grandfather's dazzling exterior made him a mark for the enemy's bullets. The wonder is that, being so conspicuous, he was never shot down and was rarely wounded. I have read that at the battle of Aboukir he charged with his cavalry straight through the Turkish ranks, driving column after column into the sea.—Prince Murat's Memoirs.

Passed the Bottle Too Quickly.

Will Low, the painter, told this story of the Latin quarter days of Robert Louis Stevenson. Low and Stevenson were great friends in their youth. Their friendship indeed continued up to the time of the writer's death.

"Louis," said the artist, "was no less diplomatic than brave. He could be fiery, and he could also be gracious and pacific. One night, I remember, we sat in a garden in Montmartre. The red wine had been flowing pretty freely, and one member of our party got heated and aggressive. Finally some one said a thing that this fighting chap disliked. As soon as the words were spoken he grabbed up a bottle and hurled it at the other's head. It was a strong, true shot and would have hit the mark had not Stevenson sprung to his feet and caught the missile.

"Tut, tut, George," he said to the thrower—"tut, tut! If the bottle is passed so quickly none of us will be able to stand out the evening!"

A Quiet Place.

"Business is pretty slow here just now," confessed the Squam Corners merchant.

"I judged so," replied the baking powder drummer, "when I observed that they had laid off one of the hands on the town clock!"—Puck.

If These Towns

with the best of fire-fighting equipment can burn why not Daytona?

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The fire in the Equitable Life Assurance company's building, which started yesterday morning and gutted the big granite and marble structure, is still burning today and the city firemen are working hard to subdue the flames.

Between $1,000,000,000 and $1,500,000,000 worth of securities are locked in the vaults of the big building and the vaults in the ruins are being strongly guarded by a cordon of police.

It is now known that seven lives have been lost in the fire and others may be in the ruins.

The Equitable officers declared today that some of the policyholders will lose a cent because of the disaster. By hard work the firemen have been able to keep the blaze from spreading to other structures in the vicinity.

A CARD FROM STUART.
Chas. A. Boseley and party were at Stuart Friday on their return to Daytona. On a card from that place dated Feb. 2, Mr. Boseley says "Arrived at Stuart this morning, but cannot cross the river until the morning on the ferry. We leave the rock road here and take to the deep sand and swamps to Ft. Pierce and Titusville."

At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allen of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, a jolly party of Cedar Rapids people enjoyed a reunion at their winter home, Ishababa bungalow, on South Palmetto avenue last Saturday evening, and a pleasant social time was enjoyed. The party included Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lord, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hall, Miss Anna Snowden, Mrs. Julia Pettit, Miss Cora Flanagan, H. Aldrich and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allen.

TOUCHING STORY IS TOLD IN "A MILLIONAIRE TRAMP."
There is hardly a day but what the readers of the daily newspapers do not hear of some defuncted bank going to the wall from bad speculations or the embezzlement of the depositors' money. In "A Millionaire Tramp," a four-act comedy drama, which is to appear at the New Daytona theatre Tuesday Feb. 6 we will have the story vividly told of the unscrupulous bank president who had been a rejected suitor for the hand of the cashier's bride, plots and plans to ruin and blast the good name of the cashier by placing the crime of embezzlement upon him and is aided by a willing tool who has been a clerk in the bank.

FIRST BASEBALL GAME TO BE PLAYED WEDNESDAY.
The first baseball game of the winter series now being arranged by Manager Pete Rodgers of the Daytona team will be played at Harrison park here Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. The team to oppose the Daytona team in the first clash is the nine from Rollins college at Winter Park and a cracking good game is promised. The Rollins club recently defeated the Ormond team, which shows the boys from Winter Park are some baseball players. The Daytona team will have the services of Shockard, Rieble and Archer of the Chicago National league club and Hinchman of the American association.

JUST GOSSIP
BY THE GOSSIPER.
There should be a full representation of the business men and citizens at the regular meeting of the Daytona board of trade at the City hall this evening. Several matters of vital importance to the interests of the city will be discussed at this meeting.

Interest in municipal politics will continue to grow from now to the time for the election February 14. All the candidates have been announced and each one is working and affairs in political circles should become real lively by the time of the election.

From all indications the local residents and winter visitors who have been complaining that there is a lack of entertainment for the people in Daytona this winter will find plenty of excitement the first three days of week after next, when the Elks' carnival will be on, and there will be a continuous program of fun and amusement.

Some voters not thoroughly conversant with Florida laws may be disappointed in not being permitted to vote in the coming city election because of neglect in the matter of paying poll tax. The law requires that all persons qualified to vote must have paid their poll taxes by the second Saturday in the month preceding the election, not only for the current year, but also for the two years previous. This means that any man otherwise qualified to vote who did not pay his poll taxes for 1910 and 1911 before January 13, will not be permitted to cast his ballot in the coming city election.

Why can't we have an investigation of the weather bureau? Almost every other department of the United States government has gone through the thrills of some sort of an investigation, but up to this time no move has been made to investigate the doings of the weather man. Any man who will give people such a beautiful morning as we had Sunday and with the promise of a beautiful and pleasant day, then suddenly pull the reverse levers and send everybody scurrying for sweaters, overcoats and umbrellas, needs to have his doings investigated and The Gossiper moves the investigation proceeds.

Additional evidence of the absolute need of the dredging out of the approach to the canal through the Tomoka basin is given every time a boat drawing more than a few inches of water passes through that part of the Halifax river. The trail of muddy water in the wake of the boat is evidence of the need of a channel through the basin and the proper place for the dredging to be done is along the east shore, where it can be made permanent. The time for the canal to be completed, as shown by the contract with the canal company, is rapidly drawing near and the people of this section want some assurance the internal improvement board will compel the canal company to dredge out this approach. Without the approach the canal will be absolutely useless.

London Good Oyster Market.
London is a great consumer of oysters. The cheapness of the delicacy half a century ago created a demand for it, which has hung with the appetites of the people as tenaciously as the habit of smoking a pipe has among the men. It is estimated that London consumes a billion a year, and the record shows that in 1864, when prices were very low, 700,000,000 were eaten.

Evil Bound to Spread.
There is no sort of wrong deeds of which a man can bear the punishment alone. You cannot isolate yourself and say that the evil that is in you shall not spread. Men's lives are as thoroughly blended with each other as the air they breathe. Evil spreads as necessarily as disease.—George Eliot

Boarders Take Risks.
If a boarding-house keeper in Austria having a leased house subjects rooms to boarders and then fails to pay the rent of the house the lessor may levy for payment against every thing in the house, regardless of the ownership thereof.

Geographical Glee.
Milwaukee, to the funnysmith, is but one vat of beer; Chicago is the windy burg, with lots of atmosphere; Sioux Falls, as the divorcee's joy, long since attained renown, and Brooklyn, to the humorist, is baby carriage town.

His Was Laziness.
When an Indian candidate for the ministry was asked to define original sin, he said he didn't know what other people's might be, but he felt sure his was laziness.
